Dunderry Park Dunderry Park Transpersonal Centre is a 200 year old Georgian residence situated in the heart of historic County Meath, close to the ancient sacred sites of Tara, Newgrange, and Loughcrew. It is surrounded by 24 acres of wooded parkland.

Travel AIRPORTS:
Fly into Dublin, then choose one of the following:

OPTION A:
Telephone a Navan taxi to meet you at the airport.
Sean McCormick 087 292 0559 or 042 966 7377
Michael Clark 087 277 4844
John Murray, Bracken Cabs 087 221 1366

OPTION B:
Take a bus from the airport to Dublin City Centre to Busaras - the central bus depot. Take the bus to Navan. Then take a taxi to Dunderry Park.

OPTION C:
Take a boat from Holyhead to Fishguard to Ireland. Then take a bus to Busaras and proceed as in Option B.

Driving Directions OPTION D:
By car from Dublin: Take the Navan/Cavan road out of Dublin (N3) to the village of Dunshaughlin. Drive straight for 4-5 miles, pass the signs for Tara, and keep driving for another mile to a pub called "Tara na Ri." Turn left at the pub. Drive for another 3 miles to the village of Bective. Turn right. Drive 2 miles until you reach a crossroads. Cross the main road and drive through Robinstown village. After 1 1/2 miles you will see on the right the railings and gate of Dunderry Park (It is before you get to Dunderry Village).
